in Memoriam

LUCKETT, ELIZABETH. In loving memory of our darling mother. ELIZABETH LUCKETT. who left us two years ago today. February 11. 1938.

She always learned to watch for us.
Anxious if we were late:
In winter by the window.
In summer by the gate. Her thoughts were all so full of us. She never could forget. And so I think that where she is She must be watching yet.

Waiting till we come home to her,
Anxious if we are late:
Watching from heaven's window,
Leaning from heaven's gate.
HER CHILDREN.

McINTOSH, GEORGE W. In loving remembrance of my dear husband and father. GEORGE W. McINTOSH. who passed away one year ago. February 10. 1939.

Short and sudden was the call When you were taken from us all, And while you lie in peaceful sleep Your memory we will always keep.

Keen him. Jesus in The keeping. Keep him, Jesus, in Thy keeping,
Till we reach the shining shore,
Then, O Master, let us have him
To love and cherish as before.
LOVING WIFE AND CHILDREN.

Washington's Most Beautiful Cemetery Located at the end of Penn. Ave. S.E. Gates open until 7:00 o'clock had its beginning in 1858 with the organization of the Citizens Street Railroad Company, followed by three other companies; the Washington and Georgetown Railroad Company was charted in 1862 to complete a line from the Capitol to Georgetown in 60 days. In 1862 the line from the Navy Yard began operation; horsedrawn cars on wooden rails; having no turn-table, the cars often were driven around the block, thence back to the track; one steady patron was Walt Whitman, then a Government official, who spent his leisure hours riding on the street cars; the tracks were relaid with steel rails in 1889.

Horses had long been forgotten as street car "power" in 1913 when Hysong's adopted the creed of one standard of service, the highest, to all regardless of financial circumstance.
